

Free Hobby Classes Aid in Relieving Emotional Tension

To relieve emotional tension in family, personal, and business life caused by present-day uncertainties, classes designed to help individuals help themselves will be held at the Torrance Adult School starting Sept. 17.

The hobby and craft program includes cake decorating classes on Monday night from 7 to 10 in Room 112 of the High School, and Thursday nights from 7 to 10 at the North Torrance Elementary School, four blocks east of Crenshaw Blvd. and 174th Street.

Three ceramics classes will be held: one on Monday and Thursday at 6:45 in Room 201, of the High School, another on Tuesday nights at the Seaside School, and a third on Wednesday nights at the North Torrance Elementary School.

LAMP SHADE CLASS
A morning lampshade class will be held at 9 o'clock on Wednesdays at the Episcopal Church in Torrance, while the evening class will be held on Wednesday at 6:30 in room 114 of the High School.

The leathercraft class will be held at the Seaside School on Monday nights at 7. The textile painting class will be held on Monday and Wednesday nights in room 202 at the High School with Wanda Sexton as instructor.

Students are requested to go to the first meeting of these free classes during the week of September 17 and are asked to telephone Torrance 645 for further information.

Much Improved

Mrs. Lottie Phillips of 2023 Andreo is reported much improved in health and will soon be able to be out. Mrs. Vertie Grimm, of 1021 Cravens avenue is also much improved and is able to be up a part of the time at her home. Both would appreciate visitors and cards.
